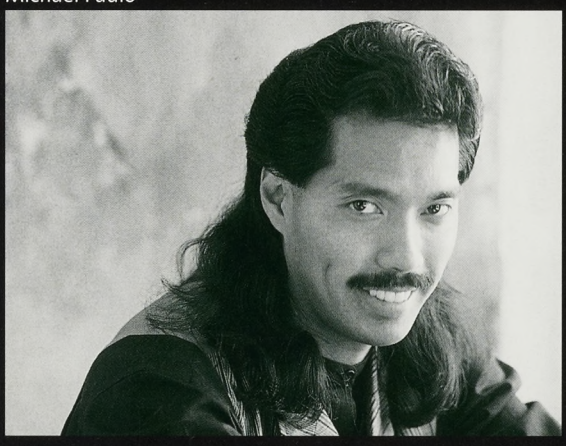
FESTIVAL OF PHILIPPINE ARTS AND CULTURE presents

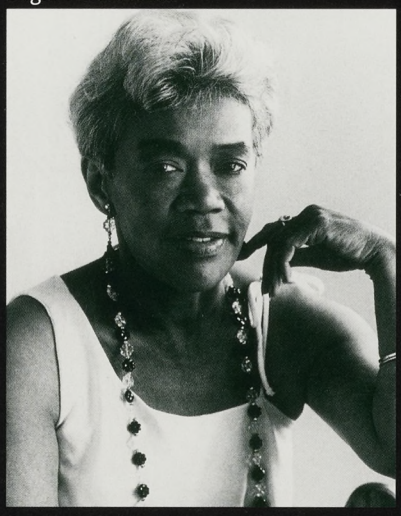
CELEBRATION OF PHILIPPINE JAZZ

SATURDAY, JULY 11, 8:00 P.M. $22, $18

Michael Paulo



Sugar Pie DeSanto



In commemoration of 100 years of U.S.-Philippine relations, composer and saxophonist Michael Paulo mixes smooth, soulful ballads with funky r&b. Bay Area blues singer Sugar Pie DeSanto delivers a high-powered performance with sassy monologues and energetic dance. Also featured is a special tribute to early Pilipino jazz pioneers.

Program Information:
(213) 389-3050
or email fpac@sipa.apanet.org
On the web:
http://vc.apanet.org/~fpac

Co-sponsored by:
Search to Involve Pilipino Americans

SIPA

Media sponsor:
LA WEEKLY

Major Sponsors:
Coors Brewing Co.
Filipinas Magazine

JOHN ANSON FORD AMPHITHEATRE
JUST OFF THE 101 (HOLLYWOOD FREEWAY) NORTH OF THE HOLLYWOOD BOWL, SOUTH OF UNIVERSAL STUDIOS
TICKETS: 213 GO 1-FORD (461-3673)

Since 1947
Los Angeles County Arts Commission

"Summer Nights at the Ford"
The John Anson Ford Theatre Foundation
374 Hall of Administration
500 W. Temple St.
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Summer Nights at the Ford

1998 Season

Non-Profit Organization
U.S. Postage
PAID
Permit No. 278
The John Anson Ford Theatre Foundation

John Anson Ford Amphitheatre
2580 Cahuenga Blvd. East, Hollywood

- Just off the 101 (Hollywood Freeway) north of Hollywood Bowl, south of Universal
- Music, Dance, Film, Family events in an intimate outdoor setting in the Hollywood Hills
- Relax in the cafe or bar, bring a picnic

Tickets, Box Dinners, Parking Passes & Information

213 GO 1-FORD
(461-3673)

www.lacountyarts.org/ford.html

On-Site Stacked Parking at the Ford costs $5 per vehicle for Sunday Brunch and evening shows, and $3 per vehicle for one-hour family shows.

Non-Stacked Parking for evening and Sunday brunch performances only is available free in the city-owned parking structure at 1718 N. Cherokee in Hollywood, only 1.3 miles from the Ford. Shuttle to the Ford costs 25 cents per person each way.

cleth_201904_omd0005